 ISA The Association of Learning Providers
Bold Thinking. Smart Growth.

"The ISA community is an absolute treasure trove of wisdom, experience, and support. I can honestly say that The Roundtable has flourished as a direct result of the learning and guidance I've gained from this wise and generous group."

Glain Roberts-McCabe,
Founder & President,
The Roundtable

Industry Leaders Together

ISA-ALP is a distinguished group of companies that leads the industry across the learning and development spectrum. All with a common commitment to achieve and exceed business goals. ISA-ALP members come together to learn from each other and find out what working and what's not so that clients can reap the benefits. As a participant member of ISA-ALP, you're getting access to an unequalled collection of industry-specific experience.

"Participation in ISA allows me the unique opportunity to benchmark against other leading companies and generate a professional network that spans disciplines, geographies, and business models."

Tony Jace, CEO, Crisis Prevention Institute

ISA Helps You Grow

Throughout the year, ISA-ALP creates a space for executives to discuss, connect, and learn from their colleagues and experts within the learning industry. Both in person and online, ISA-ALP members ask questions, share their knowledge, and engage in rich discussion of growing a business.

Our members form a trustworthy network, inspired by bold thinking and connected by a shared ambition. Success isn't just about the bottom line; it's also about making a powerful contribution to their clients' success.

That's why we value our opportunities to gather together and grow—personally as well as professionally.

“In ISA-ALP, we have learned how to serve our clients better through the wisdom and generosity of peer organizations. Some might call ISA-ALP members ‘competition’. I call ISA members ‘my community.’”

-Henry Evans, Dynamic Results, LLC

Business & Personal Growth

ISA-ALP offers many ways for members to grow their businesses and people as well as themselves. The Annual Business Retreat and C-Level Forums are top must-attend events with other events offered throughout the year.

Exclusive Industry Data

ISA-ALP is the only place you can get comparative data about business performance in the learning industry. Comprising three core components—financial performance analysis, best practices in business processes, and trends and market responses—the reports are exclusive to ISA-ALP member participants.

Life-Long Connections

ISA-ALP is an open community of kindred spirits in the learning and development industry. Not only will you learn from other members, but you will also build meaningful and lasting friendships, which will give you encouragement and support. With ISA-ALP you don't have to go it alone!

"ISA C-Level Forums are invaluable. I find the sessions a unique opportunity for constructive dialog about the types of issues facing our respective organizations. It's a safe, collegial atmosphere. I always take away great insights and build new relationships."

Howard Farfel, CEO, Talent Smart

Member Services

For Growth

ISA-ALP is here to help you lead a more profitable business. We do it by delivering business and personal, growth, providing industry data, and making life-long connections.

Annual Business Retreat

This 3-day retreat brings members together for provocative discussions and learning sessions focused on running a business, along with formal and informal opportunities for exchanging ideas.

C-Level Forums

At least 3x a year, ISA members come together in a full-day session to dig deep into self-selected business challenges. Led by experienced group facilitators, small groups exchange insights and potential solutions about their individual issues.

ISA-ALP CEOs/Presidents/ Owners Meeting

Each year, just before the Annual Business Retreat, this invitation-only session for business owners, presidents, and CEOs explores challenges and opportunities from the top-level perspective.

ISA-ALP Like-Size Connections

One of the most popular sessions from ISA's Annual Business Retreat is now held summer and fall virtually. Share and compare with members that have companies with similar annual revenue. These "idea exchanges" will challenge your perspective about growing your company and help you identify members experiencing a similar situation in real time.

ISA-ALP Learning Series & Webinars

ISA-ALP webinars keep the learning going all year long. These webinars of the training and talent development industry provide opportunities for timely discussions and remote mini-workshops on specific business needs as they arise. ISA-ALP webinars are ideal for other employees in your organization to learn.

Member Services

For Industry Data and Connections

ISA-ALP is here to help you lead a more profitable business, and we do it by delivering business and personal, growth, providing industry data, and making life-long connections.

Research/Benchmarking Best Practices

ISA-ALP commissions an industry-specific Financial Benchmarking Study annually. This member exclusive study is the only one of its kind comparing business performance metrics. A second study is conducted based on member need. "Snapshot" surveys are also conducted throughout the year to track market and industry trends.

ISA-ALP Newsletters & NewsFlash

Our periodic e-updates come from the unique point of view of the training and talent development industry and include market information, trend updates, and member news

Facilitated Connection

We make a point of contacting our members on a regular basis, not only to keep abreast of needs and field questions but also to make member-to-member connections to help with specific issues.

ISA-ALP Membership Directory

Continually updated, ISA-ALP maintains a searchable online membership directory that is accessible to all members.

ISA-ALP Awards

Each year, ISA-ALP honors leaders who have significantly influenced work in the field of training, learning, and performance consulting. The ISA-ALP Awards allow members to celebrate and benefit from the innovative experiences, best practices, and achievements that are making a mark on our industry and contributing to the health and collective expertise of the association.
